

Looking for German teachers/assistant teachers with experience of teaching or working with children of nursery and primary school age (4-9 years). Run by parents the German Saturday school aims to support bilingual children in the development of their German language skills.

English children will be taught German as a second language.

The teacher's main task is to design lesson plans for each term and to lead these lessons -- the assistant teacher has a supporting role.

For more information please contact cassscholz1@yahoo.co.uk